CHRISTMAS WEDDINGS

Lieutenant R. S. Knox, U. S. A. and Miss Mary Gordon Wallace, at the Bride's Home.

ELEGANT COUNTRY WEDDING

Marriage of Miss Lucee J. Johnson, of Bedford, to Mr. James Adkins, of Charlotte, N. C.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., December 10.—Lieutenant R. S. Knox, son of Cliy Treasurer R. T. Knox, of this city, lleutenant in the United States army, and Miss Mary Gordon Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wallace, an extremely popular member of Fredericksburg society, were married here to-night at 7:39 o'clock at the residence of the hride's purents, on Main Street, Rev. W. D. Smith, rector of St. George's Episcopal Church, performing the ceremony. The rooms were beautifully decoated with cut flowers, poited plants and evergreens. The bride wore a handsome costume of white crope de chine over white taffeta, with trimmings of duchess point lace. Miss Ellen D. Wallace, sister of the bride, gowned in green China, silk, over white taffeta, was maid of honor, and the best man was Captain J. A. Moss, Twenty-fourth Infantry, United States army. The bridesmalds were Misses Rebecca F. Dickinson, of Caroline: Kate Newell Degestt, Frances Moncure and Austina B. Knox, of this city, the latter a sister of the groom. Groomsmen—Messys, H. Lewis Wallace, brother of the bride: C. O'Connor Goolrick, R. H. Carmichael, of this city, and Lieutenant A. U. Faulkner, of Dupont, Del. Ribbon boys-Charles Wallace and John G. Wallace, of Richmond.

Charles Wallace and John G. Wallace, of Richmond.

The bridesmaids were white silk mull and carried Bridesmaid roses. An elegant reception was held at the residence of the bride from 8 to 10 o'clock, which was largely attended by prominent residents, as well as a number of guests from a distance. The presents were humerous and handsome. Lieutenant and Mrs. Knox left on the night train for a Northern trip.

PRETTY WEDDINGS.

Two Celebrated in Same Church the Same Evening.

the Same Evening.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BISCOE, VA., Dec. 30.—Two exceedingly, pretty marriages took place at St.
Stephen's Clurch on Wednesday evenmg, December 23d.
The first was of Mr. Edward Longest and Miss Belle Norman. The bride, wearing white silk with applique trimmings and a full vell, came up with her maid of honor, Miss Jennie Longest in white organdy. They both carried Bride roses and ferns.

and ferns.
The groom came up with his best man,
Mr. Sam Norman.
The other couple was Mr. George Norman and Miss Mable Edwards.
The bride wore dark blue silk with white applique trimmings and a large white pleture hat. She came up with her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Teresu Edwards, also wearing blue. They both carried Bride roses, and were preceded by the flower girl, Clarissa Edwards. The groom came up with his best man. Mr. Sam Norman.
Mr. Sam Norman. Mr. Sam Norman. Rev. Alex. Fleet performed the ceremonies.

The bridal parties then repaired to Mr. Joseph Norman's, the father of one bride and one groom, where a large reception was held.
The decorations were very pretty press.

was neid.

The decorations were very pretty green, with touches of white. Miss Ella Fleet, of Woman's College, presided at the organ.

agan. Again on Thursday morning a very pretty marriage took place the contracting parties being Mr. Hurley Brooch and Miss Mattle Wattins.

The bride, wearing dark blue cloth, came in with her maid of honor, Miss Rosalie Bro-ch, in white ergandy.

The groom, coming up with his best man, Mr. Brooks, Rev. Alex. Fleet performed the ceremony.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

Marriage of Miss Lucee Johnson and Mr. James Adkins.

(Special to The Times-Lispatch.)
BEDFORD CITY, VA., Dec. 39.—The
BEDFORD CITY, VA., Dec. 39.—The sealing event, in Bedford county society was the marriage of Miss Lucee J.
Johnson to Mr. James Adkins, of Charlotte. N. C., at the residence of the bride's jotte, N. C., at the residence of the bride's parents, near Davis Mills, Va., a few miles south of here, on December 23d.

The pretty parlor was beautifully decorated for the occasion with evergreens and a touch of white, the color scheme being green and white. The decorations gave a happy suggestion of the season, and were enhanced by illumination, the curtains having been lowered.

Promptly at 1 o'clock Mrs. M. L. Overstreet, only sister of the bride, took her place at the plane and rendered Mendelsschn's Wedding March, while the delisohn's Wedding March, while the bridal party entered the parlor in the following order: Miss Ethel Field with Mr. Sidney Thomas, Miss Pauline Wilson with Mr. Allen Johnson. Then Miss Beans with Mr. Allen Johnson. Then Miss Maggle Whorley, maid of honor, with Mr. Spencer James, best man; together they passed on between the other couples which had separated beyond the arch of evergrees, and stopping one on either which had separated beyond the arch of evergreens, and stopping one on either side of the minister.

Then came the bride and groom together, stopping beneath the arch, with the bridesmids on the left and groomsmen on the right. These, with the best man and maid of honor, grouped about the happy couple, and with the soft light falling over all presented a beautiful stopp.

scene.
Rev. W. T. Henderson, the bride's pastor, officiated and in his impressive manner performed the ceremony. The bridal party then passed into the next room, where they received congratulations. Dinner was served in true old Virginia stylo, consisting of all the delicacies of the senson. After this the wedding cake was cut amid many merry jests and peals of laughter.

nations. The bridesmaids were white or-nations. The britesmalus were winte organdy and white silk.

In this marriage is weven the interest and best wishes of friends without number, for rarely is it the portion of any young lady to receive so full a measure of love and admiration as is bestowed upon Mrs. Adkins, Fortune has cast its brights, with a non-ber, granting many kindly smile upon her, granting many gifts of mind and manner, together with gifts of mind and manner, togother with a nature where sunshine lingers. In her home she has ever been a joy, as well as in the large circle of friends which is hers. 2 Of Mr. Adkins the pleasantiest things

Of Mr. Adkins the pleasantiest things are said. During his visits here prior to the Christmastide he made a delightful impression. He is a native of Henry county, where his boyhood was spent. Some years ago he entered the hardware business, and has been connected with the work, gradually rising to different positions of responsibility, until now he holds an excellent position with the Piedmont Hardware Company, of Danville, Va. Being a partner in the business and traveling salesman for the same. The bride's going-away dress was navy blue cloth, thiler-made, and very becoming, with hat and gloves to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Adkins took the west-bound train for Martinsville, Va., where bound train for Martinsville, Va., where bound train for alternative, whose they will be given a reception at the home of the groom's parents. After an extended southern tour, they will reside in Charlotte, N. C.

ELEGANT WEDDING.

Baptist Church at Suffolk Scene of Brilliant Ceremony.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SUFFOLK, VA., Dec. 80 .- A beautiful white and green wedding was celebrated at 6:30 o'clock this evening in the Suffolk Baptist Church, when Miss Fannie May Crumpler became the bride of Mr. J. Shephord Parrish, of Chicago.

The bride was a daughter of the late Hon. Charles B. Crumpler, formerly judge of Islo of Wight county, Va., and later member of the Virginia Senate. He was of Islo of Wight county, Va., and later a member of the Virginia Senate. He was yet a senator at the time of his death in March, 1881.

The bridegroom, a native of Albemarie county has many connections in Virginia. He is the Chicago manager of the Richmond Cedar Works.

The auditorium of the church was decorated with smilax, palms, holly and other evergreens. There were myriads of candless and candelabra.

A ring service was used. During the cremony the bridal party made an impressive spectacle by kneeling as prayer was said. Rev. L. E. Barton, pastor of the church, was the celebrant.

The attendants were those: Miss Hettle May Eley, of Norfolk, and Miss Blanche Beaton, of Portsmouth, cousins of the bride, maids of honor; Coason Parrish, of Richmond, a brother of the bridegroom, best man; Miss Viola Saunders, Miss Marie Woodward, Miss Julia Brinkley, Miss May Butler, Miss Mary Brothers and Miss Bessie Norflect, bridesmalds; Lucius A. Daugherty, of Norfolk; Richmond Moore, of Richmond; S. Powhatan Parrish, of Illinois; Howerton Richardson and Charles Atkinson, of Richmond; Oils Beaton, of Portsmouth; L. E. Turner, Churles P. Cramer and Pelham Trotman, of Suffolk, ushers.

The bride was given away by her broth-

Beaton, of Portsmouth; L. E. Turner, Charles P. Cramer and Pelham Trotman, cf Suffolk, ushers.

The bride was given away by her brother, William Mahone Crumpler.

In entering the anditorium the young women who assisted in the dining room; the concluding reception preceded the bridal party down the alses, accompanied by escorts, as follows: Miss Rosa Bruce, with Dr. J. C. Darden; Miss Grace Thompson, with Lewis Brothers; Miss Georgie Rorum, with H. J. Bowen, and Miss Janue Carr, with John B. Norfleet.

In single file and simplianeously the ushers proceeded to the chancel through the north alsle, the bridesmalds through the north alse, the bridesmalds through the south aisle.

The bridegroom and his best man emerged from the pastor's study and were met at the altar by the bride and her brother.

The music, played by Miss Jamie Carr, organist, was a march in G, by Smart; a minuet, by Miller; a processional march, by Cralk; Entree du Cortege, by Dubois; a bridal chorus from Lohengrin and Mondelssohn's march. In the rendition of "I Love You, Dear, and Only You," the organist was accompanied by Miss Georgie Borum on the violin. Miss Lizzik Carr Brinkley sang "Recause I Love You, Dear."

The bride wore a gown of duchess satin ane voll was caught with orange blossoms.

One of the maids of honor, Miss Eley, was dressed in white crepe de chine, over taffeta, and Miss Beaton, the other, silk tissue, over taffeta. Both carried shower bouquets of white carnations tied with gauze ribbons.

The bridesmads had on frocks of white Persian muslin over white taffeta.
One noticeable feature of the wedding was the prominent seat givon "Aunt Katle," an old colored servant, who had been with the family of the bride since the war, and who nursed her during infancy.

Those who assisted in receiving were Mrs. R. H. Rawles, Mrs. W. W. Eley, anss Rosa Bruce, Miss Georgie Borum, s. s. Jamie Carr and Miss Grace Thomp-

consisting of all the delicacies of the sea son. After this the woodling cake was out amid many merry jests and peals of laughter.

The bride who is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, and is a tall and stately brunette, looked radiative for Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, and is a tall and stately brunette, looked radiative for pearls, and carried with sunburst of pearls, and carried with sunburst of pearls, and carried with carried.

No Dessert

More Attractive

Why use gelatine and spend hours soaking, sweetening, flavoring sweetening, flavoring sweetening, flavoring when produces better results in two minutes? Everything in the package. Simply add how water and set vicooil. It's perfection. A surprise to the housewife. No trouble, less expense. Try it to-day. In Four Fruit Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Strawberry, Resp. b-rry. At grocers, 10c.

Smith-Anderson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, VA., Dec. 30.—A very pretty wedding was solomitzed at Greenpond Baptist Church at high noon Wednesday, when Miss Hillie Anderson, daughter of Mr. George W. Anderson, became the bride of Mr. Samuel Clifton Smith, formerly of the centry, but now residing in Dawille.

Mr. George W. Anderson, became the bride of Mr. Samuel Clifton Smith, formerly of this county, but now residing in Danville. Ince church, which had been darkened for the occasion, was enhorately decorated with avergreens and not plants and illuminated with numerous candles, making a quaint but beautiful effect for the wedding.

The wedding march, played by Miss Estelle Smith, heradded arrival of the wedding party. First came the maid of honor, Miss Blanche Yeatts, followed by the bride, leaning on her father's arm, who gave her away, and was joined at the alter by the groom and his best man, Mr. Addison Smith.

The party stood under a beautiful wedding bell of evergreens and flowers while the ceremony was being performed by Rev. Mr. Ponle, paster of the bride, which was short and beautiful. Messrs. William Smith, of Chatham, and Archey Yeatts, of Rondo, acted as ushers. Immediately following the ceremony the party were driven to this place, and left on the afternoon train for Danville, where they will reside, and where the groom holds a position of trust with the firm of Pollock & suspepare.

Double Wedding.

Ouble Wedding.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LDEBBURG, VA. Dec. 30.—A protty couble wedding was solemilzed at the Bantist Church near Hillsbore, this counity, at 1139 o'clock to day, when Mr.
Lewis V Payno, son of Mr. Alipheus Fayne, formerly of Fauquier county and Miss Maggie L Cornwell, daughter of Mr.
Thomas F. Cornwell, daughter of Mr.
Dr. I. B. Lake pastor of the Rapitst Church at Upperville. At the same time and by the same official ting minister Mr.
John T. Robinson, of Fauguier county, and Miss Fasic Agnes Cornwell were married.

and Allss Esslo Agnes Cornwell were married.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, carnations prevailing.
The best man was Mr. Ashby Payne, frother of one of the grooms, and the maid of honor was Miss Mary Robinson, sister of one of the groomsmen.
The brides wore cream silk and the bridesmaids and the maid of honor handsome gowns of pink organidy.
The ushers were Alessrs. Harry Thompson, Rufus Ballong T. Arthur Hunt and Epna Jenkins,
Immediately after the ceremony the two couples left for a bridal tour North.
They will reside near Hillsbord, Va.

Davis-Benham.

Davis—Benham.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

EAST RADFORD, Dec. 30.—A beautiful marriage was celebrated at the home of Mrs. William T. Baldwin, Jr., this evening at So'clock, when her sister. Miss Deette Benham, of Jonesville, N. C., became the bride of Mr. Henry B. Davis, of Charlotte, N. C.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Neighbors, of Bristol, under a shower of Bride roses.

Mr. Phil Hale, of Regersville, was best man, and Mrs. W. T. Baldwin, Jr., was matron of honor. She wore a handsome gown of an crope de violle and carried plink carnations. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crope de chine, trimmed with pearl passementary, and her voil was caught with orange boy and maldenhair forns.

The weddling march was played by Mrs. E. S. Jones, and Mr. Jones sang a seautiful sole. A reception followed the marriage, and the bride and groom left on the night train for New York. They will be at home at Charlotte, N. C., after January 10.

January 10.

Mr. Davis is a popular traveling man and his brido a pretty and charming young lady. They received many handsome presents.

Wilkins-Arnold.

Wilkins—Arnold.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WAYERLY, VA. Dec. 30.—At 2 c'clock this alternoon at the residence of exJuage R. W. Arnold, on Main Street, Miss Ida Arnold, his became the bride of Mr. Arthur S. Wilkins of Norfolk, Va.
The parlors were tastly decorated with evergreens, and prommity at the hour named the bride entered the room, in company with her sister, Miss Lottle, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding murch, which was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Dr. John F. May. They were met at the altar by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Julian Gliliam of Norofile, where Judge Arnold gave the bride away, and Rev. Upton Thomas, assistant rector of Christ's Church, Norfolk, spoke the words which made the happy couple man and wife.
No teket's were issued, and only the iride's family and Mrs. and Miss Wilkins, of Washington. D. C., mother and sister of the groom, were presen'.

Mr. Wilkins is a prominent young business man of Norfolk, and Miss Arnold is widely known in Tidewater and Southside Virginia, where she is greatly admired on account of her theauty and charming personality.

Air, and Mrs. Wilkins left on the 4 o'clock train for an extended Northern tour.

Coon-Lambert.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOLLINS, VA., Dec. 30.—Last night at "Windy Crest," the home of Mr. John Lambert his daughter, Miss Princess Virginla Lambert, was married to Mr. Aiphea
S Winbert Coon. The double pariors were tastefully decorated with evergreens with the slewe of the large bay window were instefully decorated with evergreens and in the alcove of the large bay window stood the proacher and bridal couple. To the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Mary M. Pleusants, of floilins Institute, the wedding procession came in. The bride were mousseline de sole over tarieta, her vell being caught up by a crescent of pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried Bride 1988. The Missos Fleanor Lambert, Mande Dungan of Bristol; Portey Coon, Charmian Young of Bristol, and Missos, Albert L. Minor, of Hristol; Otto W. Coon, F. E. Hoff and John Lambert.

The marriage ceremony was performed. John Lambert.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Braxton Taylor, D. D.

Gibson-Ginn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MILLWOOD, VA. Dec. 30.—At high Highwood, Va. Dec. 30.—At high Highwood, were quietly inarried at the house of the bride's mother. Airs, James Ginn.
Rev. Edward ingle officiating.
Only the members of the immediate ramillos of the bride and groom, with a fow friends were present. ramilios of the bride and groom, what a few friends were present.

The bride, a handsome bruncite, is the daughter of the late James Gim, of this county. The groom is the son of John M. Gibyon, clerk of the County and Circuit Courts of Clarke county.

Jacob-Kellam.

Jacob—Kellam.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)

CAPE CHARLES, VA., Dec. 30.—Mr.

Robert Jacob, of Duckington Farm, this county, and Miss Lillie May the popular and attractive daughter of Mr. D. C.

kellam were married this afternoon at 3 c'clock in Johnson's Methodast church,
Rev. C. E. Watts, the pastor, oillicating.
The church was crowded with friends and relatives to witness the ceremony, immediately after which the happy coupic left for a tour to Norfolk, Washington, Baltimore and other points North
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob will reside at Duckington the home of the groom, in Wilson's Neck.

Hall, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Wash, and Mr. S. H. Howsey, of Richmond.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. After the ceremony the entire company retired to the dining room, where an elegant renast was served.
Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Hall Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose and drughter. Mrs. Burrus and Miss Beaseley, of Richmond.

Thomasson-Gillespie. (Special to The Limes-Dispatch.)
SKIPWITH, VA., Dec. 30.—Mr. Sidney Thomasson and Miss Grace Gillesple were married Tuesday at the bride's home, by Rey, T. O. Edwards.

Richards-Smith.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)
FERDDERICKSBURG, VA. Dec. 20.—
Mr. Pannil Richards and Miss Annie Smith, daughter of Mr. T. Smith, were married a low ddys age at Orange Court. house.

Sowers-Shult.

Sowers—Shult.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WNCHESTER, VA. Dec. 30.—Mr. Robert F. Squers and Miss Bessie Briscoe Shult, one of Frederick county's prettiest gris were married at the Presbyterian church, at Mariboro, this afternoon by Rev. A. G. Link, of Strasburg.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe Chill, and the groom is a young farmer of Clarke county.

Gibson-Grim.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., Dec. 30.—Mr.
Treadwell Gibson and Miss Estelle Grim, members of prominent Charke county famlies, were married at the bride's homelear Hoyer, this afternoon by Rev. Edward Engle of the Episcopal Church,

TO WED IN TEXAS.

A Member of Gov. Montague's Staff Goes to Lone Star State.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BRISTOL, VA. Dec. 30.—On the twelfth day of January, 1901, Miss Liva Bradley, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mir, and Mrs. Thomats G. Bradley, of Shorman, Texas, will be married to Col. Samuel V. Futkersön, of Bristol. The marriage will be solounized in the First groom-elect is a prominent attorney here teng a son of the late Col. A. Futkerson, v. To once represented the Ninth Virginia District in the National Congress.

Col. Futkerson is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute. He served as a captule in the Fourth Tennessee regiment Military Institute. He served as a captule in the Fourth Tennessee regiment during the war with Spatia. It is at present a member of the staff of Governor Montague, with the rank of colonel. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Married in Washington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
TWYMAN'S MILL, VA., December 30.—
This morning two happy couples left Oak Park for Washington, where they were married in the afternoon. The contracting parties are Mr. Risto Lacey, of Baltimore, and Miss Emma Collins; Mr. J.
Arkinbright, of Baltimore, and Miss Lizzie Lacey.

zie Lacey.

The young ladies, both of Oak Park, are among the most attractive and popular young ladies in the neighborhood, and will be greatly missed by a score of friends.

BROTHERS FOLLOW AN ELOPING GIRL

Exciting Scene at the Depot at Staunton-Ends in (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) STAUNTON, VA., Dec. 30.-Mr. Thomas Morris and Miss Eda Rowe, laughter of J. B. Rowe, both of the county, drove to Staunton last night, rom near Deerfield, in the Alleghany Mountains, and took the 4 o'clock train his morning for Washington to be married. The bride-to-be is only eighteen years old, and her father and one brother opposed the marriage. The bride appeared very nervous when waiting for the train to start last night, as both her brothers. Joe and Jasper, followed her brothers, Joe and Jasper, followed them, one of whom was opposed to the maringe and the other sanctioning it.

There was much excitement at the depot, and the girl was almost distracted by the efforts of the older brother to thwart her designs to marry the man of her choice, while the lover stood by patiently and peaceably awalting the issue. The crowd at the depot sympathized with the girl, and watched the outcome with interest.

It is understood that the brother in favor of the marriage, took charge of the other brother until the train had pulled out, and prevented him interfer-ing with them. Miss Rowe is a charming young girl.

SAVED BY GRIT.

Remarkable Fight for Life of a Bristol Young Man.

Bristol Young Man.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BRISTOL, VA., Dec. 30.—Stuart C.

Collup, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H.

Collup, of Bristol, was seriously, if not fatally, injured at Muncie, ind., a few days ago. The young man, who was in the employ of a Western railway, was making a coupling at Muncie, when by some means his foot got caught between the ties. The train came back upon him, and, clinging to the car in front of him,
he was dragged twenty yards with one foot under the wheel of the car behind him.

him.

The shoe was finally tern from the foot, when the member was saved from being completely crushed by a quick movement. The ankle joint was wrenched out of place, and the foot was almost pulled off. It was only the young man's presence of mind and determination that saved him from instant death.

Shooting Affray.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EAST RADFORD, VA., Dec. 30.—George Brown, of Crocketts, Va., was shot in the shoulder by Bud Linkus this morning.
The Police Court put a time of $25 on Link kus and dismissed hum, as Brown was in fault. He will most likely recover.

Established over a Century, 1802, 1903.

DIAMONDS

and other Gems mounted in the newest and most artistic settings, SPECIAL PIECES made to order from original designs.

All correspondence given very prompt and careful attention. Goods sent on sp-aproval to all responsible persons. Express prepaid.

Galt & Bro., Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers, 1107 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

Social and Personal

The wedding of Miss Mary Howard Cobb, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blackwell Cobb, of Stamford, Conn. to Mr. William Pegram Glimour, of the city, will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York city, the Rev. Dr. D. Parker Morgan officiating. Concerning the datalis of the marriage the New York Herald says. The wedding will be followed by a reception at Sherry's.

The decorations in the chancel and throughout the church are to be green throughout the church are to be green and white, combined with the ordinary Christmas embellishment, placed in the building for the celebration of the feast on Friday last.

Miss Cobb will have her younger and Miss Cobb will have her younger and only sister, Miss Lucy Langhorne Cobb, as her maid of honor. Her bridesmatds, who are to wear dainty gowns of blue crepe and lace, are to be Miss Glimour and Miss Marjorle Glimour, sisters of the bridegroom, of Holenburg, Scotland; Miss Farish and Miss Fuller, of Now York; Miss Hope, of Petersburg, Va., and Miss Parker, of Providence, R. I. Mr. Allan Glimour, of Helenburg, Scotland, will be his brother's best man. The ushers selected are Messrs. Irvine Jordan, Harold Roberts, Robert Glimour, W. S. Luckett, H. W. Cobb, B. L. Belt, C. C. Dula and R. M. C. Glenn, of New York; James Hamilton, of Detroit, Mich., and Walter M. Schartz, of Philadelphia.

The Lyceum Club.

The Lyceum Club.

American interest and membership is solicted for the Lyceum, a social and residential club for women, which will be opened in London about June the ist, and will be located near Trafalgar

Square.

In so far as its objects are concerned:
The Lyceum Club is intended to provide a common meeting ground, for women throughout the world, who are workers in literature and science, including medi-

In England, as in America, during the last ten years, these professions have become an even more important field for the employment of women. The scantiness of remuneration, the uncertainty of employment and the disadcertainty of employment and the disadvantage under which, in many cases, the work is produced, all point to the necessity for providing by cumbination a home where the comforts of life and conveniences for work may be obtained. The Lycoun Club will have all the features of a high class club, and will offer facilities for refreshment, recreation, work; for obtaining information as to the professions, and so far as the accommodations will permit, for fesicence. The American representative of the club is Miss Jessio Trimble, whose address is No. 463 Poplar Street, Chattanooga, Tenn.

is Miss Jessio Trimble, whose address is No. 463 Poplar Street, Chattanooga, Tenn., who will remain in Chattanooga until February 1, 1994, to receive applications for membership and give information about the new organization.

The American Advisory Board, which has been secured, includes a list of names representing some of the best literary workers among women in this country.

Cuthriel-Farinholt. At the wedding of Miss Bettle Slater Farinholt to the Rev. Join Cuthriel, of West Point, Va., which was celebrated in the home or the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Farinholt, last afternoon, the bride, attended by Miss Nellie Bright Davis, were white crepe de chine. Miss Davis was in white slik and carried La France roses.

France roses.
The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Hannon, assisted by the Rev. Norman Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Cuthriel will be at home in West Point after January 15th.

Miss Hebbard Introduced.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Humilton's re-ception last evening, introducing Miss Ruth Hebbard to Richmond society, was a very brilliant and a very delightful at-

Ruth Hebbard to Richmond seciety, was a very brilliant and a very delightful affair.

The house, which lends itself handsomely to entertaining, was very charmingly decorated in Southern smilax, Christmas evergreens, American Beauty roses and red waxen tapers in silver candelobra, shedding their warm glow throughout parlors and library.

Miss Hebbard stood with her mother, icoking extremely pretty and girlish, in white, with a bouquet of American Beauty buds, Mrs. Schuyler Hamilton wore a lace robe over taffeta, with diamonds.

Miss Sophie White and Miss Mary Beirne were at the punch bowl.

Anong those who called during the evening were:

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Wilmer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Borden, Governor and Mrs. Andrew J. Montague, Dr. and Mrs. Truman Aifred Parker, Attorney-General and Mrs. William A. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. Truman Aifred Parker, Attorney-General and Mrs. Harrie Webster, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Herndon Miles, Mr., and Mrs. Gifford Vernon Lewis, Misses Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Mann Satterwhite Valentine, Miss Gladys Frayser, Miss Neille Gordon, Miss Marion Elise Parkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Stowart Woodward, Colonel and Mrs. John H. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frazier and many others.

A reception to Dr. Robert H. Fife, the Woman's Club, will follow his lecture to be given at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, on "William Tell." and the many logends associated with the famous hero.

A. P. V. A. Tea. The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities have sent out invitations for a tea to be given Tuesday January 5, 1904, from 5 to 8 o'clock, at No. 707 East Franklin Street.

The Central Committee will receive the guests, and will be in line without bonzols.

Any member falling to get a card is asked to notify Mrs. J. Enders Robinson, of No 113 South Third Street. . . .

The Christmas and New Year dance of the Richmond Cotilion Club will be given this evening in the Masonic Temple, Mr. Adolphus Blair leading. The dance will be one of the prettiest of the season, will be largely attended and will have a number of holiday features rendering it unusually attractive.

The club officers are: Mr. Henry Hot hiss, president; Mr. George D. Morgan, secretary and treasurer; Mr. Philip R. Car.ton, Mr. William R. Turner, Mr. Carl M. Goodloe, Mr. C. Irving Blair and Mr. Henry P. Adair. Chaperones include: Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Meado T. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart M. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Rutherfoord, Mr. and Mrs. Adamson and Mr. Henry P. Adair. Chaperones include: Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Meado T. Spicer. Mr. and Mrs. Burton Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Stowart M. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Stowart M. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Rutherfoord, Mr. and Mrs. Adamson Mrs. Adamson Mrs. Adamson Mrs. Adamson Mrs. Adamson Mrs. Adamson Mrs. Marguret L. Beattle, of No. 223 Governor Street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Heleu Campbell, to Mr. Reuben Thomas Lipscomb, on Thursday, December 24th, at the home of the bride, this city.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Edwin Gibson, of Culpeper, Va., is chosen profession, the law,

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW.

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fall to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry—Prof. Charles Elict

No. 68.

The Death of the Old Year

By ALFRED LORD TENNYSON.

This poem is one of Lord Tennyson's earlier works. The portrait, autograph and biographical sketch of Lord Tennyson huve already appeared in this series.

ULL knee-deep lies the winter snow DESIGNATION OF THE PARTY OF THE And the winter winds are wearily sighing; Toll ye the church-bell sad and slow, And tread softly and speak low, For the old year lies a-dying. Old year, you must not die; You came to us so readlly, You lived with us so steadily, Old year, you shall not die.

> He lieth still, he doth not move; He will not see the dawn of day. He hath no other life above. He gave me a friend, and a true, true-love, And the New-Year will take 'em away. Old year, you must not go; So long as you have been with us, Such joy as you have seen with us, Old year, you must not go.

He froth'd his bumpers to the brim; A jollier year we shall not see. But the' his eyes are waxing dim, And the' his fees speak ill of him, He was a friend to mo. Old year, you shall not die; We did so laugh and cry with you, I've half a mind to die with you, Old year, if you must die.

He was full of joke and jest, But all his merry quips are o'er. His son and heir doth ride post-haste, But he'll be dead before. Every one for his own; The night is starry and cold, my friend, And the New-Year blithe and bold, my friend, Comes up to take his own.

How hard he breathes! over the snow I heard just now the crowing cock. The shadows flicker to and fro; The cricket chirps; the light burns low; 'Tis nearly twelve o'clock. Shake hands, before you die. Old year, we'll dearly rue for you. What is it we can do for you? Spenk out before you die

His face is growing sharp and thin.

Alack! our friend is gone. Close up his eyes; tie up his chin; Step from the corpse, and let him in And waiteth at the door. There's a new foot on the floor, my friend, And a new face at the door, my friend, A new face at the door.

the guest of her mother, Mrs. James Grigg, at No. 1100 West Avenue.

The Misses Matt, of New Orleans, have been spending the holiday season at the Jefferson Hotel, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peter Cary, of Chicago, have returned to Richmond from a short visit to Hanover county, Va. Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Leftwich Gray have returned from their bridal trip and are now in Richmond for the rest of the winter.

Mrs. W. Greanor Neal and Mrs. John Clifford Miller are back from spending the Christmas holidays most pleasantly with their parents in Culpeper county.

Miss Gould, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Junius Mosby at their home on East Grace Street.

HALIFAX COURT.

An Unusual Amount of Business for the Christmas Term.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOUSTON, VA., Dec. 30.—As a rule, not much business is done at Christmas Court in Hallfax-but this term has been

Court in Hailing—But this term has been an exception, A special srand jury who impanelled Monday, who presented six indictments for folony.

Arthur Lee, charged with wrecking a train of the Southern Railroad, near Milton, was tried Monday and given ten Milton, was tried Monday and given ten years in the pentientiary.

Four negroes, charged with breaking in the storehouse of H. T. Headspeth, near News Ferry, were given terms in the pentientiary from one to five years.
The court being in doubt as to the sanity of William Robertson, a white tramp, charged with horse stealing, the case was continued until the next term.
A small crowd attended court, and while there was the usual amount of horse-trading, there was very little drunkenness to be observed.

ness to be observed.

A hall thief finding the front door of Captain Henry Edmunds and Mr. William Holt Edmunds unlocked, relieved them of their overcoats last night,

TREE FELL ON BOY.

Congressman Klutz's Son Accepts Position With Hearst. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALISBURY, N. C., Dec. 30 .- Rov. A. Brown, of Gibsonville, has accepted

Handsome Scrap Books,

THE POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW.

By Mail, 35 and 45 cents.

To Preserve

STEPS TO PREVENT

Mass-Meeting of Jews Held at Savanuah-President Says He meeting of the Jews of Savannah, held in the synagogue to-night, a committee was appinted and given full power to act as they saw fit regarding any measure toward preventing a repetition of the Kinhineff massacre. Addresses were made by Dr. George Solomons, Dr. J. P. Mendes, S. T. Tazarone and D. Epstein. Among the measures counseled was the 1903—1904.

Representing the Hartford Fire Insurance Company and the Actna Life's Actident Department. I return my sincere thanks to my friends for their liberal patronags. Parties desiring up-to-date accident and fire insurance policies, secured by millions, and at moderate cost, will find it to their interest to confer with TIMES-DISPATCH Business Office.

ANOTHER MASSACRE

Will be Ready to Act.

(By Associated Press.) SAVANNAH, GA., Dec. 80 .-- At a mass

Among the measures counseled was the colonization of the Russian Jews in America and an appeal to this government and a direct appeal to the Czarina. A communication from the Hon, Simon Wolf, of Washington, and A. S. Solomons, of New York, stated that they had called upon President Roosevelt and that he had said: "When the time for action comes I will be found neither waiting nor wanting."

Farmers' Club Banquet.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONTPELTER VA., Dec. 80.—The Christmas banquet of the William Nelson Farmers' Club was held at the home of Mr. Edgar Pollard Saturday.

with GRORGE C. JEFFERSON'S Insurance Assocy,
'Phone 254. Times Building.